

Did you know, in Ontario

Explore the Arts

ONTARIO
Yours to discover

1	ARNOLD ZAGERIS: ANTARCTICAL	Art Gallery of Peterborough - Peterborough With large images, some 58 inches wide, Arnold Zageris conveys the majesty of the Antarctic landscape giving the viewer a unique and intimate experience of this forbidding continent. From the delicate tingling sounds of tiny ice crystals, to the majesty of its towering peaks, and the ferocity of its relentless storms, Antarctica animates, inspires, and humbles. https://agp.on.ca/exhibitions/arnold-zageris-antarctica/
2	GROUP OF SEVEN PAINTING TOUR	Art Gallery of Algoma - Sault Ste. Marie Enjoy a tour of the Art Gallery of Algoma's current exhibitions before immersing yourself in a hands-on activity by an art professional. You'll create your own Group of Seven style painting that you can take home to admire! http://www.artgalleryofalgoma.com/gallery-tours.html
3	ART IN THE OPEN	Niagara Region 250 pieces of outdoor art are showcased throughout the Niagara region. Follow the interactive map online to navigate your choice of art by medium. Find monuments, murals, sculptures and more. All with varying themes like architecture, sports, military, street art, indigenous, etc. https://artintheopen.ca/
4	ARTCRAWL	James Street North - Hamilton On the second Friday of every month, Hamilton's arts and culture hub is transformed by a decade-old phenomenon called Art Crawl. Enjoy a one-stop shop to experience the city's burgeoning art, music, and food scenes, while shopping local, people watching, and taking in some city sights all at once. https://tourismhamilton.com/art-crawl-guide
5	THE MARKET GALLERY	South St. Lawrence Market - Toronto The Market Gallery animates the second floor of the South St. Lawrence Market which encloses all that remains of Toronto's original 19th-century Front Street City Hall council chamber. presenting a variety of exhibits related to the art, culture and history of Toronto. www.toronto.ca/explore-enjoy/history-art-culture/museums/market-gallery/
6	McMICHAEL CANADIAN ART COLLECTION	The McMichael - Kleinburg This Collection is the only publicly funded fine art gallery in the nation that focuses on Canadian art and the Indigenous art of our country. Find over 6,500 artworks by Tom Thomson, the Group of Seven, their contemporaries, and First Nations, Métis, Inuit and contemporary artists who have contributed to the development of Canadian art. http://mcmichael.com/collection/
7	COLOUR BREAK	Oeno Gallery - Bloomfield Colour Break is Oeno Gallery's annual antidote to winter! Guaranteed to chase away the grey of winter, this curated group exhibition of colourful sculptures and paintings includes select Canadian and American artists. https://oenogallery.com/
8	ARTISSIMO	National Gallery of Canada - Ottawa On holidays and weekends, families are invited to experience the National Gallery, play art games, make their own artworks and share art with other kids across Canada and around the world. Artissimo activities are for children aged 3 and older accompanied by an adult. https://www.gallery.ca/whats-on/for-kids-and-families/artissimo
9	PERMANENT COLLECTION	Thunder Bay Art Gallery - Thunder Bay The Thunder Bay Art Gallery's Permanent Collection is renowned for its cultural, social and artistic value. With over 1600+ works of art, the Gallery began collecting works in 1982. To date, the collection's significance has rested on contemporary First Nations art, as one of the few in Canada to maintain this specific focus. http://theag.ca/art/permanent-collection/
10	TREE TRUNK TOUR	London The tree trunk tour demonstrates London's love of trees and is enhancing its reputation as the "Forest City". Carvers have created sculptures that, instead of being confined to an art gallery, are right out on public streets. https://www.londontourism.ca/treetrunktour/