

Did you know, in Ontario

Fun Summer Festivals

1	WTF Festival	June 6 – 9, Various Venues in Sault Ste. Marie Taking place over multiple days, the WTF (Way too funny) festival will mix comedy, variety, music, and family fun into one dynamic festival featuring the best of Canadian comedy. www.wtffestival.ca
2	Summer Solstice Indigenous Festival	June 20 – 23, Vincent Massey Park, Ottawa The Summer Solstice Indigenous Festival recognizes the enormous contributions that Inuit, First Nations and Métis peoples have made to Canada. It is a family-oriented, multi-disciplinary arts festival that attracts over 40,000 visitors per year. www.ottawasummersolstice.ca/
3	Prince Edward County Lavender Festival	July 6 – 7 and July 13 – 14, Hillier Tour the beautiful lavender fields while enjoying live music, kids' activities, face painting, a petting zoo, pony rides and delicious food. Learn about the process of essential oil making and sample delicacies in the Tasting Tent. Discover many cultivars of lavender, offering a myriad of colours, scents and tastes. www.peclavender.com/
4	Strawberry Festival	June 28 – July 1, Whitchurch-Stouffville, Memorial Park The Whitchurch-Stouffville Strawberry Festival is a free family event that happens over the Canada Day weekend and features a market with more than 200 crafters and vendors, the Made-in-Canada Music Party, Hometown Country Concert and Corn Roast, Canada Day fireworks, tons of free kids' activities, a pancake breakfast, carnival and lots of strawberries! www.strawberryfestival.ca
5	Luminato Festival	June 7 – 23, Toronto The Luminato Festival turns theatres, parks and public spaces into a playground for artists and thought leaders to share their work and spark conversation. The festival is a celebration of music, film, art, literature, and creativity. This year features the North American premiere of House of Mirrors, an optical adventure for all ages, where nothing is quite what it seems and getting out is an art. www.luminatofestival.com/
6	Wambo	July 15, Wallaceburg Wambo, the Wallaceburg Antique Motor & Boat Outing, is one of Canada's largest transportation shows featuring antique boats, classic car, fire trucks & motorcycles. Enjoy live entertainment at various locations around town as well as a Dream Cruise of Classic Cars. www.wambo.ca
7	Sound of Music Festival	June 8 – 16, Burlington Canada's largest free music festival is ready to take over Burlington's downtown and waterfront, supporting an eclectic combination of new and emerging artists, past favourites and some of today's most popular performers. www.soundofmusic.ca/
8	Riverfest Elora	August 16 – 18, Elora Riverfest Elora is one of Ontario's best-kept secrets. Hidden in the small town of Elora, every August the festival hosts dozens of musicians, vendors, and artisans. https://riverfestelora.com/
9	Kingsville Highland Games	June 22, Kingsville Back at last! The Kingsville Highland Games will once again grace the north shores of Lake Erie in a celebration of Scottish and Celtic culture. Featuring PPBSO pipe band competitions, highland dancing, athletic heavy events and so much more. https://www.kingsville.ca/en/explore-and-play/kingsville-highland-games.aspx
10	Big Sky Music Festival	July 20, Burl's Creek Event Grounds, Oro-Medonte It's back to the classics at Big Sky Music Festival. Sing along to Alabama, Travis Tritt, Diamond Rio, Mason Ramsey, Jason McCoy, and The Redhill Valleys. They're taking it back to the good ol' days with a classic car show, camping, and craft market the whole family will enjoy. www.bigskymusicfestival.ca/