

Did you know, in Ontario

BRAVO! Theatre & Outdoor Concerts

ONTARIO
Yours to discover

1	Shaw Festival Theatre Beyond the Stage	Niagara-on-the-Lake It doesn't have to be over when the curtain falls. Get the deeper experience: adult seminars, readings with Ensemble members, lively discussions, backstage tours, workshops and more. https://www.shawfest.com/beyond-the-stage/all/
2	Tweed & Company In Development	Tweed In Development is an exciting new program designed to allow Tweed & Company an opportunity to contribute even more to the Canadian Musical Theatre landscape. It includes an extended writer's retreat, staged readings, parlour performances, semi-staged public presentations and more! https://tweedandcompany.com/in-development/
3	The Boonies Drive-In Theatre	Tilbury Take a mini vacation down memory lane and enjoy nostalgia at its finest. You'll find yourself in a simpler time when root beer floats and hanging out was the thing to do and the drive-in was the place to be! https://www.thebooniesdrivein.com/about
4	Thousand Islands Playhouse Dock Talks	Gananoque From June through September, Dock Talks offers a chance to meet the artists from Springer Theatre productions. The pre-show chats on the river start one hour before each Wednesday matinee at Thousand Islands Playhouse. http://www.1000islandsplayhouse.com/dock-talks/#
5	Blyth Festival	Blyth Since 1975, the Blyth Festival Theatre has put farmers and rural Canadians centre stage, telling their stories and celebrating their way of life. A fully professional theatre, in the heart of Ontario's bread-basket, the Blyth Festival's ingenuity, tenacity, and creativity has irrevocably reinvigorated the region's very imagination. https://blythfestival.com/2018-season-calendar/
6	Westben Dare to Pair	Campbellford Come closer to the music you love this summer through all your senses. New tastes, sights, smells, sounds and touches are all in store, each presented in creative combinations. Favourite and exotic foods, special wines, fascinating locations, colourful local history and of course, enchanting music! https://www.westben.ca/dare-to-pair-2019
7	Shakespeare in High Park	Toronto Shakespeare in High Park, Canada's longest-running outdoor theatre experience, returns for its 37th season with two adaptations of the Bard's most popular and enduring works. The battle of sexes is on full display with a comedic tale of love and desire in Much Ado About Nothing , and Measure for Measure , the timeless story of morality and power. https://www.canadianstage.com/online/article/shakespeare-2019
8	King's Wharf Theatre	Penetanguishene Nestled within Discovery Harbour on the shores of Georgian Bay, the King's Wharf Theatre is flanked by majestic tall ships and the historic buildings of a 19th century British naval and military base. Summer theatre performances by Drayton Entertainment run from June until mid-September. https://penetanguishene.ca/en/discover/kings-wharf-theatre.asp
9	Queenston Heights Concert Series	Queenston Set in the beautiful Queenston Heights Park, enjoy Sunday afternoon concerts that bring the sound of big band, Dixie, blues and more at these family-friendly outdoor concerts. https://www.niagaraparks.com/events/event/queenston-concert-series
10	Line Theatre Festival Fridays at the Farm	Millbrook An outdoor festival that runs Friday evenings on the Farm, all summer long! Join us before the show to sample savoury and sweet offerings from local culinary partners who will have their products for sale. Bring your taste buds as there will be lots of delicious ready to eat foods available! https://www.4thlinetheatre.on.ca/festival-fridays-at-the-farm